PSC to Hold Public Hearings on Proposed Transmission Line in Sheboygan County

Public encouraged to provide comments

MADISON – The Public Service Commission of Wisconsin (PSC) will hold public hearings in Plymouth on Wednesday, August 16 regarding American Transmission Company's (ATC) application to construct a transmission line in Sheboygan County.

Citizens are invited to provide testimony on ATC's request to construct approximately two miles of a 138-kilovolt power line to connect its system to a proposed substation near the Johnsonville Sausage Company. Plymouth Utilities has asked the PSC for permission to build a substation near the Johnsonville plant in a separate case before the Commission. A decision on that case is expected before the Commission will make a decision on ATC's proposed transmission line. The total estimated cost of the transmission project is approximately $2.5 to $3 million.

Public comments on ATC's application will be included in the record the Commission will review to make a decision. The Commission has the authority to approve, modify or deny the application. Citizens are encouraged to attend the hearings, which are scheduled for:
